[Announcement]

Filter should be better now!

[Question Corner]

@Glamour there was something up with it, and I worked my pestering ways to get it resolved. It's better now.

@Prof. Magic/SeaQuake I'm looking into this for you. I'm not sure yet what I can do, but I'll find out if there's a way I can force a pw reset.

@Atlas Afraid I can't, it's an account security thing! I can tell you when you created your account, which was on 2-6-2018.

@Sorrel Oh no well I'm glad you managed to make it back and that your thread came through (and stayed this time). Who do you think would be the Antipholuses and who would be the Dromios?

[Forum Prompts]

You were the strongest dragon in all the land, the fastest flier and sharpest teeth, and you made sure everyone knew how amazing you were. Your cockiness had it's downside - you made a lot of enemies and one day ended up cursed. The curse stole your powers and bound them to a small scavenger boy. If you can protect him for a whole year you'll regain everything. Since you're greatly weakened, you'll need to rely on sneakiness and smarts instead of sheer power.

Hmmm, Clay would make a good Dromio, as would Sunny. Probably Starflight and maybe Glory for the Antipholuses. This is just out of the main dragonets; I'm sure Qibli would be a really great Antipholuses otherwise. And don't worry, Tsunami can be Aegus.

an icy prison, all while making sure they are not discovered by humans. It's one of my favorites!

Hear yea hear yea, here is the news and also it's Friday!

[Announcement]

New update about our project! /347660

[Question Corner]

@Angie I appreciate the plays a lot and have fond memories of performing in a high school performance of Twelfth Night.

@Scientist But just think of how much Science!! you could do with twice the Scientist power!

@Burner Me too, tbh.

@Twilight Sounds pretty great! I always wished there were more fantasy series about merpeople. I guess maybe I just missed out on them. As for the flame colored dragon... She's a messenger SkyWing, and she's constantly flying places to deliver the news. She doesn't have firescales but sometimes she still accidentally burns the news up :-/

@Brine You know, that's extremely practical. I applaud your entrepreneurial spirit.

[Forum Prompts]

Inspired by Twilight, let's have a mer-themed prompt!

Here are 4 different Merpeople tribes (sorry about these names, I'm not feeling extremely creative when it comes to naming things, feel free to re-name if these concepts inspire you :P)

1. The MerShark: Aggressive, combative people with strong swimming abilities and rough, thick scales on their tails. They can use their tails to sharpen their tools or weapons when necessary. They typically use lances to catch small or large fish for food. As long as no one messes with their territory, they generally don't invade the space of others and stick to themselves.

2. The MerJelly: Nomadic group of Mer who have no distinct homeland, often causing them issues with the MerSharks. Especially since their "go with the flow attitude" is the polar opposite of the MerSharks aggression. They use traps and nets to catch large quantities of fish at a time, again causing issues with other tribes as they take a lot of the food supply. But they are incredibly likeable and due to their travels often ingratiate themselves to a tribe by becoming a bard, performer, merchant, or comedian.

3. The MerEel: Fastest swimmers with long, thin tails. They are capable of swimming backwards, a unique defense. They live in a maze-like cave palace that has never been successfully infiltrated. As they are the fastest most skilled swimmers, they rarely use ranged tools and instead use small clawed gloves to easily catch their prey. They have a bad rep among other tribes for being sneaky and darting into others territory to catch prey, but they've never been caught red-handed so it's all just a rumor.

4. The MerPuffer: Generally peaceful, they have the best defense of all the Mer tribes. They are the slowest and smallest tribe and are primarily vegetarian, eating algae, but consider small shellfish like clams or oysters delicacies for special occasions. They are natural tinkerers and have become the toolmakers for the other tribes. Their blood contains a deadly toxin and when in danger they can inflate deadly spikes on their tail.

[Question Corner]

@Twilight I'm so happy you like the Merpuffers :D :D What good timing with your RP! Having an angler tribe is really cool. I love deep sea fish, especially biolumenescent ones.

1. Fave dragon tribe are the RainWings but even so, Cricket is my favorite character. 2. BRUSSELS SPROUTS! Wait that wasn't an option.... 3. If you can't think of anything I'll ask a question! What's your favorite fish?

@Stormbringer You bet you'll be able to customize your avatars. We have a ton of customization options.

@Zane I am a big doggo fan. Big fluffy doggos like Great Pyrenees, Newfoundlands, and Samoyeds. Have you seen Samoyed puppies? Because they are the cutest little fluff balls on this earth, it honestly should be illegal how cute they are.

Isn't John Lemon an old meme? I feel out of touch. Am I old? Oh no.

I can't offer a hug but I can give a high-five! high-fives

@Rune Let's see... Looks like the filter is reading Lewis as a real person who you're calling a "sore loser." This happens with real-sounding names sometimes. If you try starting it with "Lewis' traits:" or "Lewis' personality" it might go through. Or use "hates to lose" instead of "sore loser." Poor ol' Phil is just trying to protect Lewis.

@MakoFox Grace Hopper is amazing!! I love the history of where bugs and debugging came from.
